

Tana Christianson, The Law Society of Manitoba

Tana graduated from Robson Hall in a previous century. After a decade in private practise, she joined The Law Society of Manitoba's in house insurance program in 1993 and has been managing professional liability claims against lawyers ever since, including many wills and estates claims. She also has relevant front-line experience. As the spouse of a lawyer, Tana has sat at countless dining room tables and witnessed and initialed every page of many wills and powers of attorney.
