

K. Eleanor Wiebe, K.C., Fillmore Riley LLP

Eleanor was called to the Manitoba Bar in 1983 and appointed Queen's Counsel in 1998. She is a retired partner with Fillmore Riley LLP. For 34 years, Eleanor worked primarily in the areas of commercial law and wills and estates. She taught the "Wills and Succession" course as a sessional lecturer at Robson Hall for over 13 years.

In her retirement, she is enjoying mentoring young lawyers, assisting the profession (Law Society, MBA, judiciary, Robson Hall and community groups) as requested on wills and estates topics. She remains a passionate supporter of the Legal Help Centre.
