

PROFESSOR D.A. ROLLIE THOMPSON, KC

Professor, Schulich School of Law, Dalhousie University, since 1982 (full professor 1992-2020, professor emeritus since 2020). Executive Director, Dalhousie Legal Aid Service, 1982-85 and 1991-94.

Counsel, Epstein Cole LLP, Toronto, since 2022.

Recipient of Dalhousie Law Alumni Association and Dalhousie Law Students Society Award for Teaching Excellence 2001-02. Recipient of the Vincent J. Pottier Award for Exceptional and Outstanding Contribution to Dalhousie Legal Aid Service (awarded in 2005). Appointed Queen's Counsel in 2011. Recipient of Award for Teaching Excellence in the Osgoode Professional LL.M., 2016. Recipient (with Carol Rogerson) of one of the AFCC-Ontario's "10 in 10" 10th Anniversary Awards of Excellence in Family Justice 2018. Recipient of the Ontario Bar Association 2024 Award for Excellence in Family Law in Memory of James McLeod.

Editor of the Canadian Family Law Quarterly. Co-director (with Prof. Carol Rogerson), Spousal Support Advisory Guidelines Project, Department of Justice Canada 2001-2008. Editor of the Nova Scotia Civil Procedure Rules (LexisNexis).

On sabbatical 2006-07 at University of Toronto, Faculty of Law, taught Evidence. Also taught Child and Spousal Support course at Osgoode Hall Law School, Osgoode Professional Development, Family Law LL.M. (2007, 2009, 2011, 2013, 2015).

Associate at Kitz, Matheson, Green & MacIsaac, Halifax, 1980-82. Member of N.S. Bar since 1980. Clerk to Justice Brian Dickson, Supreme Court of Canada, 1978-79. Economist, Nova Scotia Government, 1972-76 and Bank of Canada, 1971-72.

LL.B. (Dalhousie, 1978); B.A. (Hons. Economics & Political Science) (McGill, 1971).